CODE OF ETHICS & BUSINESS PRACTICES

1. FOREWORD

1.1 These Codes are the outgrowth of an initiative sponsored by the Direct Sellers Association (DSA). They are intended to be an expression of the high standards of business conduct which are subscribed to by each Member company within the Association and, further, are devoted to the enhancement of relations between Member companies, their direct Salespersons and the ultimate Consumer. Though these Codes reflect the codes adopted by the World Federation of Direct Selling Associations (WFDSA) they have been in place for longer than the WFDSA codes. The provincial and federal legislation that governs direct selling sets out the minimum obligations of Members and Salespersons; the obligations imposed by these Codes go beyond those minimum standards.

1.2 They are undertaken as part of an overall effort by DSA Members to protect and enhance the position of direct selling within the Canadian consuming public's purchasing habits and shopping mode preferences. Additionally, all DSA Members seek to make the industry a welcome and attractive place to earn a living. These Codes are a reflection of the commitment of all Members and Salespersons to these goals.

1.3 These Codes operate within the context of Canadian law. Members and Salespersons are bound by the legislation enacted by Parliament, the Competition Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act for example, and by provincial and territorial legislatures—their Consumer Protection Acts, for example. The provisions of these Codes may reflect the legislation that exists or they may go further; they are not to be understood as qualifying in any way the legal obligations that Members and Salespersons are under. Compliance with these Codes may not be compliance with all legislative requirements.

2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 Direct Selling refers to the marketing of Consumer Products directly to Consumers, generally in their homes or the homes of others, at their workplace and other places away from permanent retail locations, usually through explanation or demonstration of the Products by a Salesperson.
- 2.2 Direct sales involve several participants: the direct seller, the Salesperson and the purchaser of the Product offered. The relationship between them must be based on fair and ethical principles.
- 2.3 The strength of direct selling lies in its tradition of independence and its commitment to a free-market system. Each Member recognizes, however, that this freedom of enterprise carries with it the obligation to consider not only one's personal well being, but also that of others, and of the industry as a whole.
- 2.4 To achieve this goal, DSA Members commit themselves to abide by these Codes in order to ensure a high level of ethical conduct on the part of all Members and Salespersons, individually and collectively, when dealing with each other under competitive conditions.

3. DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CODES AND CODE ENFORCEMENT/COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

CODE OF ETHICS

1. SCOPE

- 1.1 The purpose of the Code is to emphasize the sense of responsibility toward the Consumer and toward the general public by all Members. The Code applies to direct Sales practices used in the marketing of Products and refers only to the relationship of Members and their Salespersons with the ultimate Consumers who purchase Products from them.
- 1.2 The Code is to be applied in spirit as well as to the letter, bearing in mind the varying degrees of knowledge, experience and discriminatory ability of those to whom direct Sales are directed.

2. BASIC PRINCIPLES

- 2.1 All Members shall conform to the principles of fair competition as generally accepted in business, with particular regard to:
- a. the terms of the Offer and the Sales Documents and the methods and form of the contact with the Consumer.
 - b. the methods of presentation and demonstration of, and information about the Product.
 - c. the fulfilment of any obligation arising from the Offer, the Sales Documents or any operation connected with them, including delivery.
- 2.2 This Code reflects the pledge of all Members to carry out their activities in conformity with the laws of Canada, its provinces and territories. Compliance by Members and Salespersons with laws that pertain to Direct Selling is a condition of acceptance by or continuing membership in the DSA. All Members pledge to publicize this Code, its general terms as they apply to Consumers and Salespersons, and information about where Consumers and Salespersons may obtain a copy of this Code.

- 2.3 This Code is a measure of self-regulation by the Direct Sellers Association. It is not a law, and its obligations may require a level of ethical behaviour that exceeds existing legal requirements. Non-observance of the Code does not create any civil responsibility. With termination of its Membership in the DSA, a company is no longer bound by the Code, the provisions of which remain applicable to events or transactions occurring during the time a company was a Member of the DSA. Conversely, compliance with the Code may not satisfy the legal obligations imposed on Members and Salespersons.
- 2.4 All Members believe that their business dealings should be carried out at a level well above the minimum required by law, and that integrity and customer satisfaction are their two most valued objectives.
- 2.5 Members shall voluntarily assume responsibility toward their Consumer with respect to fair Sales methods and Product value, and shall make every effort to ensure Consumer satisfaction.
- 2.6 All Members recognize their responsibility to fully inform Salespersons as to the characteristics of the Products offered to enable them to give the Consumer all necessary information.

- 5.2 The cooling off period shall be clearly stated and shall apply equally to direct sales and distance sales (i.e. telephone, mail or online orders).

CODE OF BUSINESS PRACTICES

1. SCOPE

- 1.1 The purpose of this Code is to emphasize the sense of responsibility among Members, and among Members and their Salespersons, and to encourage the highest level of ethical business conduct among all participants in the direct selling industry.
- 1.2 The success of every direct seller rests in the ability to offer the best opportunity possible and recruit the most promising candidates. To meet this competitive challenge, the ethical principles and practices of this Code shall be carefully observed.
- 1.3 This Code is to be applied in spirit as well as to the letter, bearing in mind the varying degrees of knowledge, experience and discriminatory ability of those concerned. All Members are committed to abide by all Canadian and applicable provincial and territorial laws. Notable among Members, however, is the belief that all business dealings must be carried out at a level well above the minimum required by law. Integrity and customer satisfaction are the two most valued objectives of all Members

2. BASIC PRINCIPLES

- 2.1 All Members and Salespersons commit themselves to the high standards of ethical conduct as contained in the Code of Ethics.
- 2.2 All Members shall conform to the principles of this Code with respect to:
- a. fair competition as generally accepted in business, with particular regard to:
 - b. their methods and approach used to recruit Salespersons;
 - c. their efforts and obligations to train and educate;
 - d. their Salespersons; and
 - e. their general approach to and treatment of all participants in the direct selling industry.

- 2.3 This Code is a measure of self-regulation by the Direct Sellers Association. It is not a law and its obligations may require a level of ethical behaviour that exceeds existing legal requirements. Non-observance does not create any civil law responsibility. With termination of its Membership in the DSA, a company is no longer bound by the Code, the provisions of which remain applicable to events or transactions occurring during the time a company was a Member of the DSA.

3. GENERAL

- 3.1 All Members and their Salespersons shall adopt the highest level of ethical standards in their dealings with Consumers and shall abide by the spirit and letter of the Code of Ethics. Every Member pledges to abide by the Code as a condition of admission and continuing Membership in the DSA.
- 3.2 To guide Salespersons in dealing with the Consumer, and with each other, and with all direct selling industry participants, every Member shall make available to their Salespersons the Code of Ethics and this Code of Business Practices. Each Member shall ensure that each Salesperson becomes familiar and complies with the contents of these Codes.
- 3.3 To guide employees and executives in dealing with the Consumer, their Salespersons, and all direct selling industry participants (including Salespersons of other direct selling companies), each Member shall, by way of a compliance statement from the Chief Executive Officer or senior operating officer, ensure that the employees and executives become familiar with, understand and comply with the Code of Ethics and this Code of Business Practices.
- 3.4 Each Member shall establish procedures to ensure that it is sufficiently informed of the Sales activities and practices of its Salespersons.

4. RECRUITING

- 4.1 Every Member shall refrain from business recruiting practices directed at the Salespersons of other Members, whether directly or through third parties that do not comply with the provisions of applicable federal and provincial laws, including the Civil Code of Quebec and the applicable common law that may, among other things, deal with wrongful or malicious interference with contractual relationships in effect between companies and their independent contractors.

5. EDUCATION

- 5.1 Sales educational programs offered to Salespersons by Members shall conform to the principles of fair competition as generally accepted in business and law, particularly concerning:
- a. the methods and forms of the contract with the Consumer;
 - b. the methods of presentation and demonstration of the Product; and
 - c. the information on the Product to be given to the Consumer.

6. FALSE OR MISLEADING STATEMENTS

- 6.1 No Member shall make any statement or condone any statement, by inaction or otherwise, of any of its Salespersons that contains false, misleading, unwarranted or exaggerated claims, either directly or by implication. For example, if a competitor's name is used, it shall be used only in the context of a factual comparison and relevant significant terms.
- 6.2 If a testimonial and endorsement is used, it must represent the honest opinion of a competent endorser.

- 6.3 If a competitor's Product is used, it shall be used only in comparison with a Product that is actually competitive and where significant similarities exist.

7. DISPARAGING CLAIMS

- 7.1 Every Member shall not make claims or condone claims being made by others in relation to the sales or marketing plan of other Members that do not comply with the provisions of applicable federal and provincial laws, including the Civil Code of Quebec and the applicable common law.

8. MEMBER OBLIGATIONS TO SALESPERSONS, SALES POLICIES AND SALESPERSON RELATIONS

- 8.1 Members shall give their Salespersons either a written agreement to be signed by both the company and the Salesperson, or a downloadable electronic statement containing all essential details of the relationship between the Salesperson and the company. Members shall inform their Salespersons of their legal obligations, including any applicable licences, registrations and taxes.
- 8.2 No Member shall require or encourage its Salespersons to purchase inventory or to assume other expenses in connection with the exercise of its business that are unreasonably high. Companies shall take clear and reasonable steps to ensure that Salespersons who are receiving compensation for downline sales volumes are either consuming or reselling the products they purchase in order to qualify to receive compensation.
- 8.3 It shall be considered an unfair and deceptive recruiting practice for a Member or Salesperson to require or encourage an independent salesperson to purchase unreasonable amounts of inventory or sales aids. The Code Administrator may employ any appropriate remedy to ensure any individual salesperson shall not incur significant financial loss as a result of such prohibited behaviour.

- 8.4 The Code Administrator, upon finding a Member company has engaged in false, misleading or deceptive recruiting practices, may employ any appropriate remedy to ensure any complainant shall not incur significant financial loss as result of such prohibited behaviour, including but not limited to requiring such Member company to repurchase any and all inventory, promotional materials, sales aids and/or kits which a complainant has purchased.
- 8.5 The facts of each particular case, including the following, will determine whether the expenses assumed or inventory purchased are unreasonable:
- a. the relationship of the expenses or inventory to the possible earnings expectation;
 - b. the nature and competitiveness of the producers held and the market environment; and
 - c. the Member's Product return and/or inventory restocking policies and the established Sales record of the Salesperson.

- 9.5 Notwithstanding Section 8.5, every Member shall permit its Salespersons to return Products in Saleable condition on reasonable commercial terms.
- 9.6 Every Member shall inform its Salespersons of the right to return Products and how it can be exercised. Salespersons must be given the option of returning Product to the person from whom they purchased it, or to the company.
- 9.7 The factors to be considered in determining what constitutes reasonable commercial terms include:
- a. the nature of the Product;
 - b. the time period given to return Product;
 - c. the percentage of money returned;
 - d. the procedures to be followed in returning the Product; and
 - e. a comparison of other Product return policies of similar companies.

9. EARNINGS AND ACCOUNTS

- 9.2 Earnings paid to Salespersons shall be derived from sales of products or services to consumers. Earnings of Salespersons may be based on the sales and personal consumption by the Salespersons and their downlines.
- 9.3 Salespersons shall not receive earnings for recruiting other Salespersons into a sales system; except that Members may provide Salespersons with minimal incentives which are in accordance with local law.
- 9.4 All amounts due shall be paid and any withholdings made in a commercially reasonable manner.

10. OTHER MATERIALS

- 10.1 Members shall prohibit Salespersons, while they are acting as Salespersons, from marketing to other Salespersons any materials that are not approved by the Member and are inconsistent with the policies and procedures of the Member.
- 10.2 Salespersons who sell company approved promotional or training literature, whether in hard copy or electronic, or any other form, shall (i) offer only materials that comply with the same standards to which the Member adheres, (ii) refrain from making the purchase of such sales aids a requirement of other Salespersons, (iii) provide sales aids at a reasonable and fair price, without any significant profit to the Salesperson, equivalent to similar material available generally in the marketplace, and (iv) offer a written return policy that is the same as the return policy of the Member the Salesperson represents.

10.3 Compensation received by Salespersons for sales training and promotional materials to become or stay a Salesperson which is, in effect, remuneration for recruiting Salespersons into a sales system, shall be prohibited.

11. RECRUITING

11.1 Every Member shall present the advantage of the selling opportunity to any prospective Salesperson in an honest and forthright manner.

11.2 Members and Salespersons shall not misrepresent the actual or potential sales or earnings of their Salespersons. Any earnings or sales representations made shall be based upon documented facts and, where applicable, be in compliance with federal, provincial or territorial laws.

11.3 No Member shall make any statement to any prospective Salesperson that cannot be verified or make any promise that cannot be fulfilled.

12. EDUCATION

12.1 Every Member shall inform its Salespersons fully as to each of the following:

- a.* the importance of compliance with these Codes;
- b.* the recourse available through the DSA for a violation of these Codes;
- c.* the characteristics of the Products offered to enable them to give the Consumer all necessary information;
- d.* the applicable price and credit terms associated with each Product or Offer;
- e.* the “cooling-off” requirements in their province;
- f.* the applicable guarantee or warranty associated with each Product or Offer;

g. the inventory buy-back terms; and

h. any applicable after-sales service associated with their company.

13. RESPONSIBILITY FOR CODE

13.1 The prime responsibility of the observance of the Code toward Salespersons and toward other direct sellers rests with the Member.

13.2 Every Member shall be responsible for the practices of its Salespersons where a violation of this Code has occurred and where the Member has either authorized, condoned, or in any way supported such a practice.

13.3 If a Member is negligent in failing to establish procedures whereby the Member would be kept informed of the sales practices of its Salespersons, that Member shall be considered responsible for the violation.

14. TERMINATION

14.1 When a Salesperson is terminated by a Member for cause, the Salesperson shall be entitled to know the reason for the termination and to be given an opportunity to answer any accusations made against him or her.

14.2 When a Salesperson is terminated without cause, the Member should give the Salesperson as much notice of the impending termination as is reasonably possible in the circumstances.

The Board shall provide sufficient authority to enable the Administrator to properly discharge the responsibilities entrusted to the Administrator under these Codes.
 - 1.2 The Administrator will be responsible directly and solely to the Board. The Board shall establish all regulations necessary to administer the provisions of this Code.
